

Clergy Sexual Boundary Training California-Nevada Annual Conference

Redding, First United Methodist Church
1825 East Street, Redding, CA 96099

August 31, 2011 (8:30 a.m. – 5 p.m.)

- Are Gifts from parishioners really gifts?
- Can Pastors be friends with parishioners?
- What about the $500 check at Christmas from a parishioner? Should pastors accept that?
- What about going to a doctor who is your parishioner?

Sexual Ethics Training isn't just about the obvious. Join your colleagues and explore the many dilemmas pastors, church staff, congregational leaders and parishioners face in their relationship.

PRESENTERS: Elmar de Ocera, Kathy La Point-Collup, and Maggie Mc Naught who have been trained by the Faith Trust Institute to lead: A Sacred Trust: Boundary Issues for Clergy and Spiritual Leaders. The training includes a workbook, DVD presentations and discussion.

CEUs: .75 CEUs are awarded in the Area of Sexual Ethics for Clergy

TARGET AUDIENCE: All those serving under appointment (Elders, Deacons, TBA's, Provisioners, Local Pastors, etc), Church Staff, Youth Leaders, SPRC Members, Sunday School Teachers and others in position of leadership in church settings and appointment settings.

SPONSORED BY: Council on Clergy Development Council, California-Nevada Annual Conference

COST: $52.00 for the first registration from a church or appointment setting; $32 for additional members from a church or appointment setting. Includes lunch, a workbook and .75 CEU's for those serving under appointment.

MINIMUM REGISTRATION: There must be 15 registered one week prior to workshop date for training to be held.

For more information, contact Kathy La Point-Collup at kflc@aol.com or cell (916) 690-2321.